

The internet has become one of the most important elements of “The Common” — an idea critical to the prosperity of the US and the world. Please do not partition it off or create slow and fast lanes depending on how deep your pockets are. We want to retain Title II. Thank you.